

I believe that diversity in the media is a key contributor to U.S. principles and freedom. I oppose changes that lead to more consolidation of media ownership, because such changes reduce the diversity of programming and opinion on regulated frequencies. Please retain the current ownership rules.